ST. CHARLES, MO

Botanical Card Making Class

May 11, 2024

10 a.m. to 12 p.m.

Plant presses are and have been invaluable to botanists to preserve and catalogue plants worldwide. Combining her background in botany with her lifelong hobby of rubber stamping, Brittany Shultz has been preserving plants through card making. Come and discover the essentials of pressing plants, mounting plants to paper, and rubber stamping techniques. Design and create your own card to take home. No previous experience needed. All materials will be provided.

Class fee: $20

This class requires registration. Registration can be done online at mostateparks.com under Things to Do, over the phone or in person.
