Winning (Wimming), Samuel B.	Unarmed recruit	Marmaduke's Escort		Miami, MO	Sep 1864	29 Aug 1888 Saline Co MO	POW Mine Creek KS 25 Oct 1864	Obit says: In 1864 he enlisted in the Confederate army, during Price's last raid through the state, in Marmaduke's escort company. He was present at nearly all the fights of the retreat, but as he was one of the unarmed, he could take no active part. At the crossing of the Little Osage, near Ft. Scott, he was captured with General Marmaduke. He was taken to St. Louis, then to Alton, Illinois, and after the surrender, was released and came home, and at once resumed his farming business. Records for two of his brothers list their last name misspelled as Wimming. Born: Sep 27, 1829 in Berkeley Co., VA
