

Annie and Abel Van Meter State Park

Presents

EXPLORING COLOR AND CULTURE

TIE-DYE WORKSHOP INSPIRED BY “NATIVE AMERICAN TRADITIONS”

Native American tribes have held deep connections to colors found in nature. These hues were not just decorative, but carried profound spiritual and cultural significance.

- Date: July 27, 2024
- Time: 10:00 a.m.
- Audience: ages 9 and up
- Participants: 10-15 people
- Free and open to the public
- Seating is limited and registration is required online or at the park office
- Bring a shirt or item to be tie-dyed

