

Mastodon State Historic Site

Archaeology and Paleontology Day

Saturday,
September

28

Learn about Kimmswick's ancient past!

- 10 a.m. - paleontology story time
- 11 a.m. - guided hike to the bone bed
- Noon - skull show and museum tour
- 1 p.m. - guided hike to the bone bed
- 2 p.m. - skull show and museum tour
- 3 p.m. - excavations presentation

All activities are free. Additionally, visitors can enjoy free museum admission and a special museum scavenger hunt from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Visitors can also head to the annex lawn (accessible from the museum parking lot) from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. to participate in hands-on activities, including atlatl demonstrations and practice!

Interpreters will NOT identify artifacts or fossils at this event. Outdoor activities, including atlatl throwing and guided hikes, are subject to cancellation due to inclement weather.

1050 Charles J. Becker Drive, Imperial. Call the site office at 636-464-2976 for more information.