

POMME DE TERRE STATE PARK PRESENTS
POMME DE TERROR

OCTOBER 17 AND 18, 2025
AT THE HERMITAGE CAMPGROUND

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 17

7:30 p.m. - Creepy Cool Program

Attend a program put on by a park naturalist at the amphitheater.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 18

11 a.m. - Zoo Program

See a presentation with live animals from the Dickerson Park Zoo at the campground amphitheater.

Noon - Lunch with the Ranger

The camp store will have food available for purchase. Stop by to meet the park ranger and get a picture in his vehicle.

1 p.m. - "Mad Scientist" Contest

Create your own monster for a chance to win a prize. Entry forms and craft supplies will be available at the campground store. Contest winners will be announced during the costume contest.

2-3 p.m. - Pumpkin Carving Contest

Drop off your carved pumpkin at the amphitheater to compete for the title of scariest, funniest or most creative pumpkin. Winners will be announced at the amphitheater during costume contest.

3:30 p.m. - Costume Contest

Meet at amphitheater and then walk in our Halloween parade while our judges decide the scariest, funniest and most creative costumes for the following groups:

0-9, 10-17, 18 and up, group, and pet.

5-7 p.m. - Trick-or-Treating

Enjoy trick-or-treating throughout the campground.

Camp-o-Ween Decorating Contest

Judging will take place throughout the weekend by park staff. Prizes will be awarded at the top three sites after trick-or-treating.

A special thank you to the Marina at Pomme for supporting this event!

Call 417-852-4291 or visit the park office at 23451 Park Entrance Road, Pittsburg, MO 65724 if you have any questions.

This event is free to the public.

