

First Missouri State Capitol State Historic Site

ST. CHARLES, MO

ARCHAEOLOGY DAY AND PUBLIC MEETING

Saturday, October 18

Noon to 3:30 p.m.

Join us at First Missouri State Capitol State Historic Site to celebrate International Archaeology Day! The historic First Capitol building will be open for self-guided tours, and we will have fun, family-friendly archaeology activities in the backyard!

These activities will be held in conjunction with our annual public meeting. From 1-2 p.m., staff will be available to provide updates about the site and answer questions.

This walk-up-style event is free and open to the public. There is no registration, and you are welcome to browse and stay as long as you like.

For more information, please call the historic site at 636-940-3322 or visit us at 200 S. Main St. in downtown St. Charles.

Missouri State Parks — a division of the Missouri Department of Natural Resources