AQUATIC TRAIL

9.90 miles one way
ESTIMATED POWER-BOATING TIME: 2 hours

This unique aquatic trail provides boaters with a different perspective of the park when viewed from Lake of the Ozarks. The diversity of the park and its natural communities are showcased with stops to view woodlands, glades, streams and geological structures. The trail is accessible from the water only and users must provide their own boats. An aquatic trail guide is available at various locations in the park and is recommended before launching on this unique interpretive trail.

BLUESTEM KNOLL TRAIL

0.70-mile loop TRAIL RATING: Moderate
ESTIMATED HIKING TIME: 35 minutes

Bluestem Knoll Trail gives hikers an idea of how the Ozark landscape looked when settlers first arrived more than two centuries ago. Widely spaced trees, tall native grasses and wildflowers were characteristic of the natural communities found in central Missouri.

COAKLEY HOLLOW TRAIL

0.80-mile loop TRAIL RATING: Rugged
ESTIMATED HIKING TIME: 50 minutes

This self-guiding interpretive trail meanders through one of the most ecologically diverse areas in the park. Six different types of natural communities, including dolomite glades, fens, spring-fed streams and several types of woodlands, can be seen. This trail, located in the Ozark Caverns area, may be closed during evening hours and in the off season. Call the visitor center at 573-346-2500 to see if the area is open.

FAWN'S RIDGE TRAIL

1.40-mile loop TRAIL RATING: Moderate
ESTIMATED HIKING TIME: 1 hour

The first part of Fawn's Ridge Trail is a level .6-mile one-way section that runs from the campground check station to the picnic area along Highway 134, and is accessible to wheelchairs. Pleasant views of the dry-mesic chert woodlands can be viewed. The trail veers off to make an additional .7-mile loop. If starting at the trailhead across from Highway 134, this loop trail is approximately 1.4 miles long. If starting at the trailhead at the campground check station, this loop trail is approximately 1.1 miles long. White connector 1 joins this trail to White Oak Trail to make a longer hike.

HIDDEN SPRINGS TRAIL

2.50-mile loop TRAIL RATING: Moderate
ESTIMATED HIKING TIME: 1 hour, 50 minutes

Hidden Spring Trail goes through native Missouri woodlands to bluff tops above the lake. Depending on the season, users may see flowering dogwoods or hear pileated woodpeckers. In addition to the abundant natural history in this area, the trail also passes near a small family cemetery.

HONEY RUN TRAIL

12.75-mile multi loop TRAIL RATING: Moderate

ESTIMATED HIKING TIME: 9 hours, 35 minutes

Upland Flatwoods Section: 3 miles one way
ESTIMATED HIKING TIME: 2 hours, 15 minutes

North Loop: 4.25 miles
ESTIMATED HIKING TIME: 3 hours, 10 minutes

South Loop: 2.50 miles
ESTIMATED HIKING TIME: 1 hour, 50 minutes

Honey Run Trail is actually three diverse trails in one. Starting at the trailhead along McCubbins Drive, this one-way portion of the trail goes through a natural community known as upland flatwoods. As the trail drops off the ridge, it passes through woodlands before coming to a bottomland community and ending at the stream that runs through Honey Run Hollow. From this point the trail branches into two separate loops. The South Loop runs through bottomland woodland and loops around Honey Run Creek. The North Loop offers a variety of different communities from woodlands dominated by post oak and white oak trees to bottomland communities. Dolomite glades and views of the lake are interspersed on the trail.

LAKE TRAIL

1.30-mile loop TRAIL RATING: Moderate
ESTIMATED HIKING TIME: 1 hour

Lake Trail shows a variety of Ozark terrain with part of the trail densely shaded and covered in ferns and the rest of it open and rocky with areas of exposed chert and few trees and plants. The trail follows the shoreline of Lake of the Ozarks and provides views of the lake.

LAKE VIEW BEND TRAIL

1.50-mile loop TRAIL RATING: Moderate
ESTIMATED HIKING TIME: 1 hour, 10 minutes

Lakeview Bend Trail follows towering bluffs and gentle slopes through Ozark woodlands to panoramic views of the lake. Native columbines and ferns are common on the trail and hikers often see white-tailed deer and fox squirrels. Access points can be found in sections three and four of the campground. This trail also provides access to the campground amphitheater.

ROCKY TOP TRAIL

2.00-mile loop TRAIL RATING: Moderate
ESTIMATED HIKING TIME: 1 hour, 30 minutes

This popular trail climbs to one of the largest glades in the park. After passing through the glade, native Ozark woodlands with white oaks, bluestem grass and asters become common. The trail crosses through a ravine and reaches a rich north-facing slope that gives way to dolomite cliffs overlooking the Lake of the Ozarks.

Rocky Top Trail is actually two loops joined together for a total of about 2 miles. After approximately half a mile, the trail reaches an intersection. Hikers can finish the first loop by hiking 1 mile back along the lake shore to the parking area and trailhead or take a longer hike of 1.5 miles across a small ravine up to the overlook on the lake.

SHADY RIDGE TRAIL

1.00 mile one way TRAIL RATING: Moderate
ESTIMATED HIKING TIME: 45 minutes

Shady Ridge Trail meanders along the lake shore and is known for its great lake views. The trail passes through dry-mesic chert woodland where white and black oaks shade the woodland floor. It connects the Grand Glaize Beach area with the Pa He Tsi area in the park.

TRAIL OF FOUR WINDS

14.10-mile loop TRAIL RATING: Rugged
ESTIMATED HIKING TIME: 13 hours, 30 minutes

North loop: 5.75 miles
ESTIMATED HIKING TIME: 4 hours, 15 minutes

South loop: 13.1 miles
ESTIMATED HIKING TIME: 9 hours, 15 minutes

The longest trail in the park, Trail of Four Winds passes through almost every type of natural community in the park. This diverse trail, divided into a North and South loop, provides stunning views of the lake, rock outcrops, seasonal streams, ponds and woodlands. A trail map or topographic map is strongly suggested before using this trail.

WHITE OAK TRAIL

0.90-mile loop TRAIL RATING: Moderate
ESTIMATED HIKING TIME: 45 minutes

White Oak Trail is a shady trail that runs along a ridge top where various woodland animals, such as northern fence lizards, three-toed box turtles or eastern chipmunks, are often spotted. After hiking about .25 miles, the trail splits in two to form a loop. On the right, white connector 1 is a .2-mile long connector trail that joins Fawn's Ridge Trail for those wanting to make a longer hike. White connector 1 and Fawn's Ridge Trail are open to hikers only.

WOODLAND TRAIL

3.40-mile loop TRAIL RATING: Moderate
ESTIMATED HIKING TIME: 2 hours, 30 minutes

Flowering dogwoods in the spring and warm blazes of color in the fall make Woodland Trail a rewarding hike. This trail goes through the 1,275-acre Patterson Hollow Wild Area with native woodlands without any man-made intrusions. This is the only trail in the park where backpacking is allowed. A designated backpacking camp is found along the trail. A topographic map, a compass or GPS is recommended for hiking this trail.
