ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

21. (cont.) History and significance. Expand box as necessary, or add continuation pages.

A chronological list of occupants includes: 1935 city directory: Same as 1940 Census; 1940 Census: Preston Bland (Bessie - maid at dry goods co.), African American, porter at masonic temple, owns home, same 1935; 1950 Sanborn: 1-story dwelling; 1960 city directory: Mrs. Bessie Bland - widow Preston; 1965 city directory: Mrs. Bessie Bland.

This resource has excellent integrity. This resource would be contributing to the East Joplin Residential Historic District, significant for its associations with the early residential development of Joplin, specifically the African American community. Areas of significance are Community Planning & Development, and Ethnic History/Black.

22. (cont.) Sources of information. Expand box as necessary, or add continuation pages.

Google Earth, 2018; Joplin City Directory, 1920-1968; United States Census, 1910-1940; Sanborn Map Company. Joplin, Jasper County, Missouri, 1884-1950.

40. (cont.) Description of environment and outbuildings. Expand box as necessary, or add continuation pages.

The dwelling faces north and is located on a corner lot in the north portion of the Survey Area. A concrete sidewalk abuts the north and west edges of the property while an east-west gravel alley abuts the south edge. A concrete walkway leads to the front porch and wraps around the west elevation. An east-west concrete driveway is located in the southwest corner of the lot. An ornamental lawn with mature deciduous trees characterizes the landscaping.

A front-gable one-bay garage outbuilding located at then end of the driveway. Exposed rafter tails characterize the asphalt shingle roof. The garage is wood clad. Paired, non-historic wood doors with hinges occupy the primary elevation bay. Two wood-clad doors are located at the north elevation. The doors blend with the elevation. The garage retains fair integrity and would be contributing to a potential historic district.

41. (cont.) Description of primary resource. Expand box as necessary, or add continuation pages.

This Bungalow/Craftsman dwelling faces north and has a rectangular footprint. It has a concrete foundation and side-gable roof with asphalt shingles. Wide eaves and brackets characterize the roof. A gabled dormer with exposed rafter tails and brackets is present on the front slope. An exterior brick chimney is located at the west elevation and pierces the roof through the eaves. A historic porch spans the width of the primary elevation. Squared wood columns on clapboard-clad walls support the roof. The porch roof features exposed rafter tails. The porch has a wood-plank floor and wood steps. The dwelling is three bays wide and four bays deep. A historic wood door with three-light glazing defines the center bay of the primary elevation. Historic six-over-one wood windows occupy the east and west bays. Three historic four-over-one wood windows occupy the dormer. Square, historic four-light wood windows are present at the secondary elevations. The third first-story bay of the west elevation projects slightly and features a shed roof with exposed rafter tails. First story windows and the primary entrance feature wood trim with modest crown molding.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

21. (cont.) History and significance. Expand box as necessary, or add continuation pages.

A chronological list of occupants includes: 1940 Census: Charles Peterson (Verla), white, laborer WPA, owns home, Joplin MO 1935; 1950 Sanborn: 1-story dwelling; 1960 city directory: Henry M. Oliver (Velma) - custodian; 1965 city directory: Henry M. Oliver.

This resource has poor integrity due to the application of non-historic siding, windows, the alteration of the porch materials and primary entrance, and the non-historic west addition. This resource would be non-contributing to the East Joplin Residential Historic District, significant for its associations with the early residential development of Joplin, specifically the African American community. The dwelling faces south and is located on a corner lot in the north portion of the Survey Area. An east-west gravel alley abuts the north edge of the property. A concrete walkway leads from the street to the front porch. A paved driveway slopes downward and leads to the attached garage addition. An ornamental lawn with mature deciduous trees characterizes the landscaping.

41. (cont.) Description of primary resource. Expand box as necessary, or add continuation pages.

The one-and-one-half story dwelling faces south and has an irregular footprint. It has a stone foundation and a combination of wood, asbestos shingle, and metal cladding. The clipped gable roof has asphalt shingles and a cross gable is located at the east end. A c.2000 attached garage addition with clipped gable roof and concrete foundation projects from the west elevation. The lower third of the addition features vertical wood cladding while the upper portion has metal siding. The dwelling is three bays wide and two bays deep. A non-historic one-over-one vinyl window with false shutters occupies the west bay and is located on the addition. A non-historic bay window occupies the east bay. A non-historic wood door with glazing forms the center bay. The entrance has been relocated from the west wall of the cross-gable ell. The former door opening is boarded. A hipped-roof porch shelters the entrance. Non-historic decorative metal posts support the roof. The porch has a concrete foundation and steps. A secondary entrance with non-historic wood stoop is located at the east elevation. The garage vehicular entrance has been infilled and contains a four-over-four vinyl window. Non-historic one-over-one wood windows with false shutters are located at the upper half of the garage.

This one-story dwelling faces south and has a rectangular footprint. It features a stone foundation and vinyl cladding. The hipped roof with cross-gable features asphalt shingles. The dwelling is three bays wide and there bays deep. An enclosed porch is located at the rear. The west two bays of the primary elevation recede, creating a partial-width open porch. The porch features a shed roof and concrete masonry unit foundation. Non-historic decorative metal posts support the porch roof. A non-historic wood door occupies the center bay of the primary elevation. Six-over-six vinyl windows occupy the east and west bays, although these are smaller than the historic openings and contain non-historic fill material. Matching windows define the bays of the secondary elevations. The windows feature flat board trim and modest crown molding. A brick chimney is positioned near the roof peak.

A chronological list of occupants includes: 1920 city directory: Le Roy Surber - conductor Street Railway; 1940 Census: Charles Guppy (Elizabeth, daughter Phyllis, son James), white, salesman and retreader at WB Tire Co., rents home, Joplin MO 1935; 1950 Sanborn: 1-story dwelling; 1960 city directory: Earl C. Cawer (Bonnie) - laborer; 1965 city directory: Earl C. Cawyer.

This resource has poor integrity due to the application of non-historic siding and enclosure of the porch which alters the form. This resource would be contributing to the East Joplin Residential Historic District, significant for its associations with the early residential development of Joplin, specifically the African American community. Areas of significance are Community Planning & Development, and Ethnic History/Black.

The dwelling faces north and is located in the north portion of the Survey Area. An east-west gravel alley abuts the south edge of the property while a concrete sidewalk abuts the north edge. A chain-link fence encircles the property. A concrete driveway is located east of the dwelling. An ornamental lawn with mature deciduous trees characterizes the landscaping.

A single-bay front-gable garage is located in the south east corner of the lot. It has an asphalt shingle roof and vinyl cladding. A non-historic metal overhead garage door occupies the bay. The garage retains poor integrity and would be non-contributing to a potential historic district.

41. (cont.) Description of primary resource. Expand box as necessary, or add continuation pages.

This one-story dwelling faces north and has a rectangular footprint. It features a parged stone foundation and metal siding. Its intersecting gable roof features asphalt shingle. The dwelling is three bays wide and three bays deep. A non-historic enclosed porch partially obscures the west two bays. One-over-one metal windows and an aluminum storm door characterize the enclosed porch. One-over-one historic wood windows occupy the east and west bays of the primary elevation. A non-historic metal door occupies the center bay.

This Pyramid Square Folk House faces south and has a rectangular footprint. It features a parged stone foundation, metal siding, and a hipped roof with asphalt shingles. A historic gabled wing is present at the south elevation. A historic three-quarter width shed-roof porch with squared wood posts and a matchstick balustrade is located at the primary elevation. A fiberglass door occupies the center bay of the first story. A twelve-over-twelve vinyl window occupies the west bay and a non-historic metal bay window occupies the east bay. One-over-one windows flank a single-light in the bay window. Four-over-four vinyl windows occupy both bays of the upper half-story at all elevations visible from the right-of-way. The window openings cut into the wood frieze. The windows are much smaller than the historic openings and thus feature wide wood infill.

21. (cont.) History and significance. Expand box as necessary, or add continuation pages.

A chronological list of occupants includes: 1920 city directory: Arthur Siebert; 1940 Census: Carl Steele (Esther, daughters Barbara, Glenda, son Carl), white, yardman at Abernathy Lumber Co., rents home, Joplin MO 1935; 1950 Sanborn: 1-story dwelling; 1960 city directory: Otis C. Waldon (Mamie) - driver; 1965 city directory: Otis C. Waldon.

This resource has poor integrity. Non-historic alterations compromise the ability of this resource to convey its historic function and date of construction. It is not eligible or would not contribute to a potential historic district. This resource would be non-contributing to the East Joplin Residential Historic District, significant for its associations with the early residential development of Joplin, specifically the African American community. Areas of significance are Community Planning & Development, and Ethnic History/Black.

40. (cont.) Description of environment and outbuildings. Expand box as necessary, or add continuation pages.

The dwelling faces north and is located in the north portion of the Survey Area. An east-west gravel alley abuts the south edge of the property while a concrete sidewalk abuts the north edge. A parged field stone and concrete retaining wall lines the south edge of the lot. A concrete walkway leads to the front porch. An ornamental lawn with mature deciduous trees characterizes the landscaping and a chain-link fence encircles the lot. A shed outbuilding is located east of the dwelling. It features a shed roof with asphalt shingles and wood cladding. A pent porch roof spans the width of the north elevation. The shed is one bay wide and one bay deep. A six-over-six wood window occupies the north elevation while a pedestrian entrance occupies the west elevation. The door is not visible. The shed outbuilding retains fair integrity and would be contributing to a potential historic district.

41. (cont.) Description of primary resource. Expand box as necessary, or add continuation pages.

This one-story dwelling faces north and has a rectangular footprint. It features a stone foundation and vinyl cladding. The pyramidal hipped roof with cross-gable has asphalt shingles. A rectangular louver is located in the gable peak. A vinyl-clad addition with a concrete block foundation is located at the rear. The dwelling is two bays wide and three bays deep. The east bay is located in the projecting cross-gable. Paired one-over-one historic wood windows occupy the bay. A metal awning shelters the windows. A fiberglass door is located in the west wall of the projecting cross-gable. A historic one-over-one wood window occupies the west bay of the primary elevation and is sheltered by a non-historic flat-roof porch with squared support posts. Metal awnings shelter the north two bays of the east and west elevations.

The dwelling faces north and is located on a corner lot in the north portion of the Survey Area. An east-west gravel alley abuts the south edge of the property while a concrete sidewalk abuts the north edge. A chain-link fence with wood posts lines the north, south, and west edges of the property. An ornamental lawn with mature deciduous trees characterizes the landscaping.

A two-car enclosed carport is located in the southwest corner of the lot. It features a concrete slab foundation, front-gable roof, and pressboard cladding. A bank of one-over-one metal windows is located at the north elevation. It retains fair integrity and would be contributing to a potential historic district.

41. (cont.) Description of primary resource. Expand box as necessary, or add continuation pages.

This dwelling faces north and has a rectangular footprint. It features a stone foundation, wide-profile metal cladding, and a pyramidal hipped roof with a cross-gable and asphalt shingles. Cornice returns and a single-light wood casement window characterize the gable end. An enclosed porch with hipped roof is located at the rear of the dwelling. The dwelling is three bays wide and four bays deep. A shed-roof porch with non-historic decorative metal support posts shelters the west two bays. A wood door with three, square single-light windows occupies the center bay. One-over-one wood windows occupy the remaining bays. Metal awnings shelter the windows at the west elevation.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

21. (cont.) History and significance. Expand box as necessary, or add continuation pages.

This resource was constructed in 1975.

This resource is less than fifty years of age and it does not exhibit exception significance necessary to merit individual listing the National Register. This resource would be non-contributing to the East Joplin Residential Historic District, significant for its associations with the early residential development of Joplin, specifically the African American community. Areas of significance are Community Planning & Development, and Ethnic History/Black.

40. (cont.) Description of environment and outbuildings. Expand box as necessary, or add continuation pages.

The dwelling faces south and is in the north portion of the Survey Area. A concrete sidewalk abuts the south edge of the property. A concrete driveway leads to the carport. The lot features an ornamental lawn with large deciduous trees. No outbuildings were observed.

41. (cont.) Description of primary resource. Expand box as necessary, or add continuation pages.

This dwelling is a mirror of the adjacent dwelling, 1515 E. Furnace Street. The one-story dwelling faces south and has a rectangular footprint. It has a concrete foundation and side-gable roof with asphalt shingles. Brick veneer clads the lower third of the dwelling while the remainder is vinyl-clad. The dwelling is four bays wide and three bays deep. A front-gable porch shelters the two west bays of the primary elevation. A wood door with metal storm door fills the second-from-west bay. One-over-one metal windows with false shutters define the remaining bays. A side-gable carport projects from the west elevation and shelters a secondary entrance. An enclosed storage area with gable roof is located at the west end of the carport.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

21. (cont.) History and significance. Expand box as necessary, or add continuation pages.

A chronological list of occupants includes: 1910 Census: Andrew J. Carroll (Martha; daughters Myrtle and Fern; sons Earl and Claude), white; father is miner at lead and zinc co., son is dipper at candy factory, rents home; 1920 city directory: Charles L. Callentine (May) - carpenter; 1940 Census: Sam Skidmore (from Old Mexico) (Marguerite, son Sammy, daughter Sharon), white, machinist with Purless Machinery, rents home, Jerome AZ 1935; 1950 Sanborn: 1-story dwelling; 1960 city directory: Orville O. Hunt - maintenance engineer Spencer Chemical; 1965 city directory: Sol E. Fowler.

This resource has fair integrity. It retains its historic form, porch and fenestration pattern, sufficient to communicate its historic associations and era of construction. This resource would be contributing to the East Joplin Residential Historic District, significant for its associations with the early residential development of Joplin, specifically the African American community. Areas of significance are Community Planning & Development, and Ethnic History/Black.

40. (cont.) Description of environment and outbuildings. Expand box as necessary, or add continuation pages.

The dwelling faces north and is located on a wide corner lot in the north portion of the Survey Area. An east-west gravel alley abuts the south edge of the property. Concrete stairs and a walkway are located at the east edge of the lot and lead to the front porch. A chain-link fence encircles the lot. Shrubs are planted near the foundation line. A large ornamental lawn with mature deciduous trees is located to the west of the dwelling. A concrete block garage is located west of the dwelling. It features a front-gable corrugated metal roof. Vinyl cladding characterizes the gable. The application of vinyl cladding, alterations to the fenestration, and the loss of historic roof materials compromise the integrity of the garage. It would be non-contributing to a potential historic district.

41. (cont.) Description of primary resource. Expand box as necessary, or add continuation pages.

This one-story dwelling faces south and has a rectangular footprint. It features a concrete foundation, metal siding, and a corrugated metal roof. An enclosed porch with center gable is located at the south elevation. The porch enclosure is non-historic. A partial-width open porch shelters the east bay of the primary elevation. The front porch features a concrete foundation and stairs. Non-historic squared wood columns in concrete piers support the roof. A non-historic metal door is located in the east wall of the porch. A one-by-one sliding metal window occupies the east bay of the primary elevation while three narrow non-historic one-over-one vinyl windows characterize the west bay. No historic windows remain.

The dwelling faces south and is located in the north portion of the Survey Area. A concrete sidewalk abuts the south edge of the property and a low concrete retaining wall butts the sidewalk. A short run of concrete stairs with a non-historic metal railing interrupts the retaining wall. Mature deciduous trees, shrubs, and open grass areas characterize the landscaping.

A two-bay shed outbuilding is located at the northeast corner of the lot. It features a shed roof and pressboard cladding. A wood door occupies the west bay while a metal sliding sash window occupies the east bay. The date of construction is unknown; however, the shed does not appear on 1961 aerial imagery. It is less than fifty years of age and is non-contributing to the district.

41. (cont.) Description of primary resource. Expand box as necessary, or add continuation pages.

This one-story dwelling faces south and has a rectangular footprint. It features a concrete masonry unit foundation, pressboard cladding, and asphalt shingle roof. The dwelling is three bays wide and three bays deep. An enclosed three-quarter width porch with a flat roof and concrete foundation is located at the primary elevation. The lower third of the porch features wood cladding while the upper portion features mesh screens. A wood door occupies the center bay of the primary elevation while historic one-over-one wood windows occupy the remaining bays.

21. (cont.) History and significance. Expand box as necessary, or add continuation pages.

A chronological list of occupants includes: 1920 city directory: Austin H. Queen - manager Marr-Bridger Grocery (621 Broadway); 1940 Census: Lottie Stewart - office nurse; Ralph Cypert (Louise) - salesman; white, rents; 1950 Sanborn: 1-story dwelling; 1960 city directory: James P. Brazil - maintenance man Sebastian Diesel Equipment; 1965 city directory: James P. Brazil.

This resource has fair integrity. It retains its historic form and windows, sufficient to convey its historic associations and era of construction. This resource would be contributing to the potential East Joplin/Original Town Historic District, significant for its associations with the early commercial and residential development of Joplin, as well as its associations with Route 66. Areas of significance are Commerce, Transportation, and Community Planning & Development. There is potential for this district to include resources on the south side of E. Broadway, to be surveyed in Phase II.

The building faces east and is located in the west portion of the Survey Area. A short run of concrete stairs and a concrete walkway lead from the street to the front porch. An ornamental lawn with mature deciduous trees characterizes the landscaping.

A large garage stands at the rear of the lot. It has a CMU base with historic wood siding above, and a front-gable roof with asphalt shingles. The gable end has a vehicular entrance with a historic wood sliding door. The garage has good integrity but it is not eligible because there is no concentration of resources to constitute a historic district.

41. (cont.) Description of primary resource. Expand box as necessary, or add continuation pages.

This dwelling faces east and has a rectangular footprint. It has a stone foundation and wide-profile metal cladding. The front-gable roof has asphalt shingles. A short brick chimney pierces the north slope of the roof and a pair of one-over-one wood windows is located at the gable end. The dwelling is three bays wide with single one-over-one wood windows flank a center entrance. An open, three-quarter width porch shelters the primary elevation bays. The porch has a hipped roof with asphalt shingles and a concrete foundation. Non-historic iron posts on stucco-clad piers support the porch roof. A mid-century wood door occupies the center bay while one-over-one wood windows fill the remaining bays.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

21. (cont.) History and significance. Expand box as necessary, or add continuation pages.

A chronological list of occupants includes: 1896 Sanborn: 1-story dwelling; 1900 Sanborn: 1-story dwelling; 1906 Sanborn: 1-story dwelling; 1910 Census: Roy M. Courah (Ora), white, laboratory - dental, rents homes; 1920 city directory: Frank Winters - barber Harry Ferguson; 1940 Census: Hiram McDonald (Anna, brothers Miles and Kelsey), white, painter, rents home; 1950 Sanborn: 1-story dwelling; 1960 city directory: Mrs. Mable I. Gill; 1965 city directory: Mrs. Mable I. Gill.

This resource has fair integrity. While the application of non-original cladding and the enclosure of the porch compromises the integrity of the building, the cladding may be a historic alteration and it otherwise retains its historic form and it continues to convey its historic associations. This resource would be non-contributing to the potential East Joplin/Original Town Historic District, significant for its associations with the early commercial and residential development of Joplin, as well as its associations with Route 66. Areas of significance are Commerce, Transportation, and Community Planning & Development. There is potential for this district to include resources on the south side of E. Broadway, to be surveyed in Phase II.

40. (cont.) Description of environment and outbuildings. Expand box as necessary, or add continuation pages.

The dwelling faces north on a lot fronting E. Hill Street to the north and is located in the west portion of the Survey Area. An ornamental lawn with mature trees and planting beds characterizes the landscaping. A modern gambrel-roof shed is located in the southeast corner and would be non-contributing to a potential historic district. A shed-roof outbuilding is located at the rear of the lot. It features stucco and wood cladding. Shrubs heavily obscure the outbuilding from view. It was constructed c.1960. It retains integrity and would be contributing to a potential historic district.

41. (cont.) Description of primary resource. Expand box as necessary, or add continuation pages.

This Gabled-ElI dwelling faces north and has an L-shaped footprint. It has an asphalt shingle roof and cementitious cladding. It is five asymmetrical bays wide and two bays deep. A shed-roof porch with non-historic wood support posts and a concrete foundation shelters the north three bays of the primary elevation, two of which are a non-historic enclosed porch. A non-historic one-by-one window occupies the north bay while a non-historic door fills the second-from north bay. Six-over-six vinyl windows occupy the remaining bays.

This dwelling faces north and is located in the west portion of the Survey Area. A concrete sidewalk abuts the north edge of the property while an east-west gravel alley abuts the south edge. A concrete block retaining wall abuts the sidewalk and a paved drive leads to a garage outbuilding. A front-gable garage with wood shingle cladding is located in the southeast corner of the lot. Three historic wood paneled doors fill the single bay. A shed-roof outbuilding with exposed rafter tails and wood cladding is located behind the dwelling. A historic wood pedestrian door with four-light glazing occupies the primary elevation bay while a historic four-light wood window occupies the east elevation bay. Both outbuildings retain good integrity and would be contributing to a potential historic district.

A chronological list of occupants includes: 1910 Census: Pollie A. Stimalt (son James); white, bartender in saloon, owns home; 1920 city directory: Thomas A. Davis (Anna) - laborer; 1940 Census: Lizzie Howard (widowed) - laundry; African American, rents home; 1950 Sanborn: 1-story dwelling; 1960 city directory: Otis E. Barker - laborer; 1965 city directory: Otis E. Barker.

This resource has poor integrity. Non-historic alterations and additions compromise the ability of this resource to convey its historic function and date of construction. This resource would be non-contributing to the potential East Joplin/Original Town Historic District, significant for its associations with the early commercial and residential development of Joplin, as well as its associations with Route 66. Areas of significance are Commerce, Transportation, and Community Planning & Development. There is potential for this district to include resources on the south side of E. Broadway, to be surveyed in Phase II.

This dwelling faces north and is located in the west portion of the Survey Area. A concrete sidewalk abuts the north edge of the property and an ornamental lawn with mature trees and shrubs characterizes the landscaping. A low concrete retaining wall with concrete steps abuts the sidewalk in front of the dwelling. A non-historic small gambrel-roof shed with asphalt shingles and wood plank siding stands at the southeast corner of the property. This shed is less than fifty years of age and would be non-contributing to a potential historic district.

41. (cont.) Description of primary resource. Expand box as necessary, or add continuation pages.

This National Folk House dwelling faces north with two large non-historic additions (c.1980) that create the L-shaped footprint. It has a concrete foundation and metal siding. The complex roof is asphalt. The dwelling is three bays wide and a non-historic door occupies the center bay. A six-over-six vinyl window occupies the east bay while a six-over-one vinyl window occupies the west bay. A non-historic flat-roof porch with concrete foundation shelters the bays. A narrow front-gable addition connects to the east side of the side-gable original building. A large front-gable addition projects from the southeast corner to form the L. It is two bays wide with vinyl cladding and a concrete masonry unit foundation.

A chronological list of occupants includes: 1910 Census: William A. Russell (Maurine, daughter Garnet), white, barber, rents home; 1920 city directory: Mrs. Stella Moss; 1940 Census: W. C. Leeper (Sadie M., father Clark), white, grocer; owns home; 1950 Sanborn: Garage and 1-story dwelling; 1960 city directory: William B. Walker; 1965 city directory: William B. Walker. The original garage was demolished and replaced with the current resource c.1955. The house was demolished, but the replacement garage is extant. It is visible on the 1961 aerial photograph.

This resource has fair integrity. It retains its historic form, potentially historic siding, and windows, sufficient to convey its historic associations and era of construction. This resource would be contributing to the potential East Joplin/Original Town Historic District, significant for its associations with the early commercial and residential development of Joplin, as well as its associations with Route 66. 41. (cont.) Description of primary resource. Expand box as necessary, or add continuation pages.

The construction of a single dwelling on this lot is in progress. This one-story rectangular dwelling has a concrete foundation and a gable-on-hip roof with asphalt shingles. The front (south) elevation has three bays. The west end center bays, containing a pair of windows and a door, are recessed under the partial-width porch. The narrow west bay, containing a pair of windows, projects slightly and has a gable roof. The windows are one-over-one vinyl windows with simulated craftsman style muntins. The concrete porch does not have any supports installed yet and there is no premanent siding yet.

This Pyramid Square Folk House dwelling faces north and has a rectangular footprint. It has a concrete foundation and wood clapboard cladding. The pyramidal roof has asphalt singles and a short parged chimney pierces the peak. The dwelling is three bays wide and three bays deep. A historic one-over-one wood window occupies the east bay while a non-historic wood door occupies the center bay. The west bay has been altered to contain a non-historic wood door. A non-historic wood ramp leads to this entrance. A shed-roof shelters the bays. It has a concrete pad foundation. Wood posts with angle braces on short concrete bases support the roof. Historic one-over-one wood windows remain at the secondary elevations. All windows have historic trim and modest crown moldings.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

21. (cont.) History and significance. Expand box as necessary, or add continuation pages.

A chronological list of occupants includes: 1906 Sanborn: 1-story dwelling; 1920 Census: Mary McFarland (son Harry - detective), white, rents home; 1935 city directory: Same as 1940 Census; 1940 Census: Alice Baker, white, owns home, same 1935; 1950 Sanborn: 1-story dwelling; 1960 city directory: William Harrison (Sarah); 1965 city directory: Lee Lowery.

This resource has fair integrity. It retains its historic form and windows, sufficient to convey its historic associations and era of construction. This resource would be contributing to the East Joplin Residential Historic District, significant for its associations with the early residential development of Joplin, specifically the African American community. Areas of significance are Community Planning & Development, and Ethnic History/Black.

This one-and-a-half-story National Folk dwelling faces south. The foundation is not visible. It has a side-gabled roof with asphalt shingles. The south façade is clad with vinyl siding and the side elevations have asbestos shingles. A one-story, full-width porch with a hipped roof with asphalt shingles spans the south façade. The porch has a concrete slab foundation and non-historic wood support posts bridged with a short wood plank balustrade and gate. The south façade has three bays. The outer bays each contain a replacement two-over-two metal window with horizontal sash muntins. The siding and windows are historic alterations that date to c.1955. The center bay contains a paneled wood door. The south slope of the roof has a hipped-roof dormer with vinyl-clad sidewalls. The dormer contains a pair of replacement two-over-two metal sash windows with painted plywood surround.

41. (cont.) Description of primary resource. Expand box as necessary, or add continuation pages.

This one-story Ranch type house faces south. It has a poured concrete foundation and a side-gabled roof with asphalt shingles. The lower half of the exterior has red brick veneer cladding and the upper half is clad with vinyl siding. A one-story, partial-width porch with a front-gabled roof with asphalt shingles and vinyl cladding in the gable spans the east portion of the south façade. The porch has a poured concrete slab and vinyl support posts. The south façade has five bays; the two east bays are sheltered by the porch. The three west bays each contain a one-over-one vinyl window with shutters. The fourth bay contains a wood door. The fifth (east) bay contains a pair of one-over-one vinyl windows with shutters. A carport with a side-gabled roof extends from the east elevation. The carport has metal support posts and an attached shed with vinyl siding.

The dwelling sits on a large corner lot which fronts E. Hill Street to the north and is located in the east section of the Survey Area. A gravel drive is located in the west half of the lot. A low concrete retaining wall lines the north edge of the lot. A concrete sidewalk abuts the north edge of the property while an east-west gravel alley abuts the south edge. An ornamental lawn with mature deciduous trees characterizes the landscaping. No outbuildings were observed.

41. (cont.) Description of primary resource. Expand box as necessary, or add continuation pages.

This dwelling faces north and has an L-shaped footprint. It has metal cladding and a pyramidal hipped roof with cross gables. The primary elevation cross-gable is characterized by a rectangular louver and cornice returns. The roof has asphalt shingles and the foundation is not visible. It is two bays wide and two bays deep. The east bay is recessed, creating a partial-width open porch. The porch has a concrete foundation and non-historic decorative metal support posts. Historic one-over-one wood windows occupy the bays while a non-historic wood door is located in the west wall of the cross-gabled ell.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

21. (cont.) History and significance. Expand box as necessary, or add continuation pages.

This resource was constructed in 2003.

This resource is less than fifty years of age and it does not exhibit exception significance necessary to merit individual listing the National Register. This resource would be non-contributing to the East Joplin Residential Historic District, significant for its associations with the early residential development of Joplin, specifically the African American community. Areas of significance are Community Planning & Development, and Ethnic History/Black.

22. (cont.) Sources of information. Expand box as necessary, or add continuation pages.

40. (cont.) Description of environment and outbuildings. Expand box as necessary, or add continuation pages.

The dwelling fronts E. Hill Street to the south and is located in the east portion of the Survey Area. A concrete sidewalk abuts the south edge of the property while an east-west gravel alley abuts the north edge. A concrete walkway leads from the sidewalk to the front porch. An ornamental lawn with mature trees and shrubs characterizes the landscaping. A gambrel roof shed with wood siding is located behind the dwelling and is obscured by brush. It appears modern and would be non-contributing to a potential historic district.

41. (cont.) Description of primary resource. Expand box as necessary, or add continuation pages.

This one-story dwelling faces south and has a rectangular footprint. It has a concrete foundation and vinyl cladding. The front-gable roof has asphalt shingles. The dwelling is three bays wide and three bays deep. A non-historic wood door occupies the center bay of the primary elevation while six-over-six vinyl windows occupy the remaining bays. An open, three-quarter width porch with a concrete foundation and front-gable roof shelters the bays. Non-historic squared wood posts support the porch roof.
