A black and white photograph of a two-story building. The second floor has two arched windows with decorative pediments. The first floor features a storefront with a sign that reads "D.J.'S HAIRPIN". To the left of the sign is a white door, and to the right is a large window with white curtains. An "OPEN" sign is visible in the window. A bicycle is parked on the sidewalk in front of the window. To the right of the window is a dark area, possibly a doorway or a display of goods. A tree is visible on the far left side of the image.

42. FURTHER DESCRIPTION OF IMPORTANT FEATURES Double storefront - both altered beyond recognition of original. Storefronts cut down by plywood framing and storefront cornice covered with plywood. Original cornices missing replaced with brick stepped shape topped with tile. Stone band above second floor windows remain, as do second floor pilasters between windows. As it appears today, building would be non-contributing to any possible downtown historic district.		             PHOTO MUST  BE PROVIDED
