28. (cont.) Further description of important architectural features.

Windows are original two-over-two and gable end windows are original six-over-six. Building has original double entrance doors and three-light transoms. Decorative brick corbelling runs the width of the façade. Porch was removed when S. Lorimier Street was put through and took away the 14-foot front yard that sloped to a dirt street.

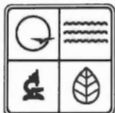

38. (cont.) History and significance.

Built in 1860 by Franz and Barbara Vogt Franz, immigrants from Germany. Electricity was added to the building in 1909. The house remained in the Franz family until 1946 when William Floyd purchased the property. Designed in the Missouri-German Vernacular style, the building conveys the rich German heritage of Cape Girardeau and the German settlement of the community in the mid-19th century.
