ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:*Description of Environment and Outbuildings:

A short painted stone retaining wall surrounds the front yard.

Further Description of important architectural features:

The house features a large gable dormer with coupled double hung windows asymmetrical placed on the front façade. The front porch has a shed roof with tapered wood post on brick bases. There is a low brick wall surrounding the porch.

History and Significance:Eligibility: not eligible

This is an interesting vernacular type, but is not designed by an architect and would not be individually eligible. Given the number of demolitions in the area, it would not be eligible for listing as part of a district.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:*Description of Environment and Outbuildings:*Further Description of important architectural features:*History and Significance:

Original Address 2455 Walrond; Arsene C. Brosseau was a employ of Dierks Lumber Co.

Eligibility: not eligible

This 1 1/2 story bungalow is a common style that would not be individually eligible. Given the number of demolitions in the area, there is little potential for a historic district.
